Declaration of consent

The participants will be generally considered in the order of the incoming applications. As there is a minimum and maximum number of participants for the workshop an early registration is recommended.

In case of non-participation, the workshop fee is non-refundable and not transferable to another person, but it can be used for another Hiah Park workshop within a time period of one year.

The signatory hereby declares that his participation in the workshop and each of its elements is voluntary and without any constraint and that he remains full personal responsible for him/herself at all the time. With his or her signature he or she agrees that no claims for any compensation will be made.

In order to be able to process the registration, we process your/your above mentioned data as follows:

1. we print out your data for the organisation of the workshop
2. we may pass on your data to Hiah Park personally
3. we use your contact data (name, e-mail) to send you relevant information about the event
4. we retain your data for the purpose of informing you about future events.

You do have the opportunity to object to the use of your data for these purposes, in whole or in part at any time by sending an e-mail with your objection to markus.1309@web.de. We will then immediately stop sending you further information and your data will be deleted.

With your signature you officially register for the seminar "Empowerment of the Young Generation" with Hiah Park from 11-13.09.2020 in Murrhardt/Germany and agree to the use of your data as described above. Minor participants require the signature of a legal representative:
