Divine Child

One who is connected with divine 'Source'/God, has a more powerful focus on their own power, connecting this Divine Energy, without resistance. Our Inner Being, the Spirit is vibrational vortex energy, it is the power in us. When we become the co-creator with this divine Source, it becomes our true nature, our True Being, the Divine Child.

This powerful potential entity in every human being is the most mysterious & powerful experience we can have in our life, especially times like now, we need to experience this powerful divine energy, since it is not just words but you need to experience in your being!! And this is the only reason we human beings continuously reincarnate life after life until we realize it fully its divine quality!!

I know we all really want to have Peaceful, Loving, Joyful life. All we need to do is commit ourselves to creating it and stay with the original heart of the divine child within.

To create a joyful, and loving world begins with knowing your True Self, it is the "Divine Child" within. Then "know yourself", it means we are realizing why we are here in this world! We are here 'to create' the 'Golden Age', not only experiencing habitual suffering.

It is so important to understand "human beings" are capable of "Love", and "human beings" are capable of being "joyful", "human beings" are capable of creating the world as you want.
